Molteno, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—Burghersdorf was occupied by Gen. Gatacre's forces last night without opposition.

Making in Desperate Straits.

Cape Town, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—Making dispatches dated Feb. 19 say that the garrison there is on desperately short rations. Horse flesh is the only meat left and that typhoid and malarial fevers are rife, especially among the children. The natives are too weak to work. The casualties up to date are 292. The garrison is determined to hold out until relief comes.

Boers Capture 76 Men.

London, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—The war office announces that four officers and seventy-two men of Kitchener's horse were captured by the Boers while guarding a well. The time and place of the capture is not stated.

Crowds Greet the Queen.

London, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—The city was crowded to overflowing today with the people who gathered to witness the arrival of Queen Victoria in London. Her majesty's train arrived at noon and the ride to Buckingham palace was attended by scenes of unequalled enthusiasm. Great crowds filled the streets in almost a solid mass through which the path for the queen's carriage had to be forced by troops. Defending cheers followed the royal procession all along the route. The queen appeared to be in the best of spirits. She bowed and smiled continually in response to the ovation.

The Queen's drive around the city this afternoon was a memorable event. The royal equipage passed through the quarters of all classes but everywhere the enthusiasm was unbounded.

Was Bribed By Rhodes.

Antwerp, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—The Vroegpost (newspaper) says that Gen. Cronje was betrayed by Commandant Ferreira, who was bribed by Rhodes and that Ferreira was killed by his own soldiers in consequence.

The Boers yesterday were completely surprised, hurriedly leaving their cooked dinner. We captured a Krupp gun together with many tents and wagons. Our casualties were two officers killed, three wounded, two men killed, forty-six wounded and one missing."

PRES. STEYER TAKES FIRM STAND

Says That the Boers Will Fight to the Very Last

London, March 8.—A. G. Hales, the correspondent of the Daily News who was captured by the Boers Feb. 9 and released a few days ago at Bloemfontein, telegraphing from Stricksfontein Tuesday says:

"When I was a prisoner at Bloemfontein I had an interview with President Steyer. He said the burgers were determined to fight to the last man, and that the struggle in the Free State would be child's play compared with what would follow in the Transvaal. He predicted that the capitulation of Pretoria would be preceded by events which would astonish Europe."

BABY TELEPHONES TO HEAVEN

Tires of Waiting For Mamma to Hear Her Prayers and Tries the Wire

Sycamore, Ill., March 8.—The Rev. Case Davis, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Warren, Ill., has a daughter nearly three years of age who is very particular about saying her prayers before retiring each night. One evening last week her mother was detained from hearing her prayers at the usual hour, and Little Louise waited patiently some time. Finally patience ceased to be a virtue with her, and she climbed upon a chair, and taking down the receiver of the telephone, shouted into it:

"Hello Central, give me heaven. I want to say my prayers." She struck the key-note, for immediately her mamma heard the little one's prayers without the use of a telephone, and the sleepy little one was snuggled into bed.

One King Cost Him $10.
Akron, Ohio, March 8.—Joseph Whitelaw, a well-known merchant, aged 60, and father of Jennie Whitelaw, who has won fame in grand opera in Europe this season, was arrested Wednesday, charged by Nora Strong with assault and battery. Miss Strong is a pretty collector for a laundry, and alleged that when she entered Whitelaw's store to collect a bill he seized and kissed her. He pleaded guilty, saying the woman encouraged him. He was fined $10 and costs.

CORBETT ON TRIAL PLEADS NOT GUILTY

He Looks Weak and Sick, and It Is Doubtful if He Will Carry the Strain.

Racine, Wis., March 8.—Henry F. Corbett, charged with assault and intent to kill the Rev. and Mrs. David B. Cheney, is on trial in the municipal court, Judge Platt presiding. Corbett pleaded not guilty.

There was no excitement, and the court room was only comfortably filled with spectators when the trial opened yesterday.

Corbett, who has been confined at St. Luke's hospital since the examination, was brought down in a hack and it was necessary for the under sheriff and assistant to virtually carry him up the stairs, his condition was so weak. He was bundled up in two overcoats and wore blue eyeglasses; the cool air, to which he was not accustomed, chilled him and he shook like a leaf. His face presented a peaked appearance, and his skin is white and drawn. Whether he will stand the strain of the long and tedious trial is doubtful, and his attorneys have stated that he will not again be placed on the stand.

Mr. Cheney came into court a short time before the prisoner. He walked with a perceptible limp, but otherwise appeared in excellent health. Mrs. Cheney did not appear; she is still much troubled account of the wound in her neck, the bullet never having been removed.

There were twenty-six jurymen on the regular panel to draw from and select the twelve. This panel was exhausted before 2 o'clock this afternoon, with probably nine proving acceptable and a special venire for twenty more jurymen was issued and the case adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

RELIGION IN SCHOOLS

University of Chicago Placed First, Harvard Last, in a Paper, Read in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, March 8.—The meeting of the quarterly conference of the Woman's Synodal Missionary society of Wisconsin at Bethany church was made exceedingly interesting yesterday by a paper read by Mrs. Mrs. Marion Ellis of Rockford, Ill., on "Christian Education in Colleges and Universities."

In the preparation of the paper Mrs. Ellis had written to the presidents of all the leading colleges and universities in the country asking what official recognition each institute gave to Christianity and what it gave to missions.

Letters were received from Wisconsin, Chicago, Michigan, Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Beloit and other colleges.

President Harper of Chicago, delegated the reply from that institution to Chaplain C. R. Henderson, who said that officially the university proclaimed its positive christian position in many ways. The union of professors and students in the christian union and the growth of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at the university were cited.

President Adams of Wisconsin said: "While it is true that we do not give official recognition to christianity we give every opportunity for voluntary work and afford it all possible encouragement."

President Elliot of Harvard was epigrammatic: "I believe," he wrote, "that all our professors are christians, except a few who are Jews."

President Angel of Michigan pointed out the fact that the university had sent out over fifty missionaries.

The summing up of the matter was that Chicago University gives the most recognition of Christianity and Harvard the least.

FAMOUS RACER FLYING FOX SOLD

Horse Was Sold at Auction in London Today and Brought $187,000.

London, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—Flying Fox, the famous race horse, was sold at auction today for one hundred and eighty-seven thousand and five hundred dollars.

WILL START NEW NATIONAL BANKS

2,000 TO BE ORGANIZED UNDER CURRENCY LAW.

Small Towns Will Have Benefit of System—Financiers Eager to Get Business of Small Institution and are Negotiating With Promoters of the Enterprise in the West.

New York, March 8.—Advices received by local banking interests today from small towns and villages throughout the United States indicate that state banks in all sections of the country are preparing to take out charters under the national system as soon as the currency bill becomes a law. New York banks are already making efforts to secure the business of these institutions, one bank in this city alone receiving today more than thirty inquiries upon the subject.

One man from a western town told a bank officer that he expected to start eight banks with a capital of $25,000 each. Reports of similar preparations in other sections of the country led to a prediction by an officer of one of the best known banks that fully 2,000 national charters would be applied for after existing restrictions were modified. The Evening Post says: "It is estimated today that anyone with $3,000 capital could start a national bank under the new system. All that is required is $25,000 in 2 per cent. government bonds, which could be secured at ruling rates for about $27,750. Those, representing the capital of the bank could be sent to Washington and circulation for the full amount of the capital immediately taken out. The organizer of the bank then has only $2,750 tied up in the enterprise, but could take deposits in the regular way. Whether the system can be properly safeguarded under such requirements is not known, but local bankers are watching the experiment with great interest and more or less concern."

PHILIPPINE WAR IS ABOUT OVER

Gen. Wheeler Says Filipinos Were Stirred to Rebellion Only by Misrepresentation.

San Francisco, March 8.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler and party who have been in quarantine since their arrival from the Philippines in the transport Warren last Monday were permitted to land last night. When seen by a reporter Gen. Wheeler said that his health was excellent and that his trip to the Philippines had, if anything, benefited him physically.

As to the situation in the Philippines and Guam, he said: "All is satisfactory in both places. The war is over except for the work of the guerrilla bands which ambush our troops and do little damage. Just before I left I heard of a case in which an American soldier was killed and several wounded. This condition of things will not last long, I think. I was much pleased with the Filipino people. They are intelligent, courteous and kind. They are not disposed to revolution but the false representations made to them regarding Americans very naturally aroused them and led them to believe that resistance to our rule was the only possible escape from impending evil. I found that when they learned the real character and purposes of Americans they seemed well reconciled to our government, and I firmly believe that after the establishment of a good and wise civil administration of affairs, an era of great prosperity will bless the people of the archipelago."

Miss Wheeler, daughter of the general who accompanies her father, denies the story of her reported engagement to marry.

Paris, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—The famous theatre Francais was burned today.

The Theatre Francais, the most celebrated play house in Europe was a national institution. It is not known how the fire originated.

Bordeaux, France, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—A number of Anglophobes gathered outside the British consulate here last night and made a hostile demonstration.

GOV. TAYLOR FOR THE CHAIRMANSHIP

Louisville, March 8.—A movement has been started by Republican leaders in Kentucky to make Republican Governor W. S. Taylor temporary chairman of the republican national convention to be held in Philadelphia. Senator W. J. Deboe is promoting this plan and it is receiving the earnest attention of republican leaders throughout the country.

Governor Roosevelt of New York is one of those who says the compliment should be paid to Taylor. Deboe is also said to have secured a promise from Senator Hanna that he will do all he can to throw the honor to Taylor.

BUTTER MEN'S WAR ON OLEOMARGARINE

EX-GOV. HOARD AND H. C. ADAMS HEARD BY COMMITTEE.

Reasons Given Why the Substitute For Butter Should be Stamped and Taxed—Fraud Perpetrated on the Public by Sale of the Spurious Oleo Article.

Washington, March 8.—At a hearing before the agricultural committee of the house yesterday in behalf of the butter interests of the country the members showed a decided disposition to favor the oleomargarine interests. Senator Lorimer of Illinois was markedly an advocate of the "oleo" people. He interrupted the speeches of the butter advocates frequently and endeavored to prove that oleomargarine is not injurious any more than the fat eaten in cooked meats.

Representatives from the pure food congress, which has just opened its session in Washington, made a plea for the butter interests, and the burden of their argument was that the people should be given what they ask for and what they want: that is, if a man asks for butter from a grocer he should be sure of getting butter and not the artificial article.

Gov. Hoard's Telling Speech

The principal speakers were former Governor W. D. Hoard of Wisconsin, Dr. C. E. Peck, vice president of the Bowman Dairy Company of Chicago, Charles Y. Knight, Joseph F. Geisler, an expert chemist from New York City; H. C. Adams, dairy and food commissioner of the State of Wisconsin; A. S. Mitchell, state chemist of Wisconsin and others.

Governor Hoard in a telling speech said he represented the united dairy sentiment of the nation. "That means," he said, "over 6,000,000 farmers, representing an annual cash value in their product of $700,000,000." He also spoke, he said, "for a vast army of consumers of dairy products, who are constantly duped and swindled by a counterfeit substitute for butter." The consumer, he said, is imposed upon and defrauded of his money and the dairy farmer of his rightful market. Mr. Hoard continued:

Oleomargarine Combines.

"Already thirty-two states have laws on their statute books forbidding the manufacture and sale of substitutes for butter when colored and made in the semblance of butter."

"The oleomargarine combine consists of less than twenty manufacturers, who have deliberately entered into a conspiracy to break down the state laws by bribing merchants, by deception of all kinds, by subsidizing city newspapers and by employing leading politicians to so neutralize the effect and administration of those laws that they may force their counterfeit upon the public."

"These manufacturers assume to override all laws. They stand behind all infractions of state and national laws, furnish money for the defense of their agents when arrested, and are the inspiring force for such contempt of law. On one side stands one of the greatest of our agricultural interests, together with the millions of consumers of their product."

Talks of an "Oleo" Trust

"On the hand stands the oleomargarine trust, engaged in manufacturing a counterfeit depending on lawbreaking, falsehood and deception for its success, backed up with millions of capital. The situation is certainly very significant when viewed from a political, economic or patriotic standpoint."

"The oleo combine and its apologists and defenders have a great deal to say about oleomargarine being a cheap food for the poor. There is consummate hypocrisy in this plea. You may notice that the 'poor' people are not making this plea. It is made for the purpose of overawing the 'poor.'"

Dr. Peck said he considered buttering a greater menace to public morals and public peace than whiskey.

FRANCE EXPECTS WAR

Opinion Grows in Paris That an Early Conflict With England Is Probable.

Paris, March 8.—[Special Cablegram.]—All the Paris papers have editorials today touching on the probability of war with England. The consensus of opinion is that hostilities may not long be delayed.

Paris, March 8.—The belief that there will be war between France and Great Britain in the near future is now greatly strengthened, even in the conservative quarters. The sober-minded Matin, which has declared war both possible and probable, returned to the subject this morning, warmly approving the course of the government in improving the defenses of Madagascar and Algeria, while the same view is taken by the exceedingly calm ex-governor-general of Madagascar, M. Laroche.

"It will not do for France," said M. Laroche this morning, "to carry the peace doctrine even further than does its great ally, the czar of Russia, who is filling northern Asia with soldiers. Russia is the very first great power to place itself in condition to repel Great Britain's aggression."

"There are many signs that the British people, whether they will or not, will be driven into war with France. These signs increase daily. It is quite natural that England should be filled with desire to regain some of its lost prestige after the Transvaal struggle, whatever be its final outcome; but even if this were not true it would still remain the duty of a wise and far-sighted government to place the colonies of France in a position where their development might continue free of any danger incident to war."

SECRETARY ROOT IN HAVANA

War Department's Head Given Warm Welcome at Cuba's Capital

Havana, March 8.—Secretary Root arrived here on board the United States transport Sedgewick at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He was received with a salute from Cuban fortress. General Ludlow was also on board the Sedgewick.

The local papers indulge in much speculation as to the reasons for the visit, but almost without exception they say that Mr. Root is welcome and that they hope he will not only enjoy the experience but that he will learn more about the Cuban people than he ever could by reading newspapers dispatches and opinions.

The military reception at the palace in the afternoon was largely attended by American officers and their families.

PARTY IS FACING A SERIOUS PROBLEM

HENRY C. PAYNE ON PORTO RICAN TARIFF MEASURE.

Mistake Made Now Might Cost Uncle Sam Dearly Later On—No Class of People So Much Interested in This Matter as the Working Classes—Should Have Careful Consideration.

Milwaukee, March 8.—National Committee Henry C. Payne appears to appreciate the fact that the republican party is facing a serious problem, but he seems to think that there is but one horn to the dilemma, and that the people who are raising their voices against the Porto Rican tariff measure are mistaken and misinformed. He says he believes they will see their mistake in a short time, and that they ought to reserve their protests until they can observe the results of the application of the 15 per cent tax the next two years. It will probably be remembered by people who follow closely the opinions of party leaders on new questions that Mr. Payne never has been much of an expansionist or annexationist, and that he has been very cautious in expressing himself on the problems that the country faces. To a reporter here he said yesterday:

Should Have Careful Consideration

"Looking to the future welfare of the republic, I consider it would be a calamity to have the status of Porto Rico, Cuba or the Philippine islands made such as would give them later on rights which would entitle them to admission as states into this Union."

"This question should have the most careful, thoughtful and statesmanlike consideration. The bill pending gives time for ample study of the questions. Let us not make haste to settle irrevocably a question which may be of the most vital importance to our people in the future."

"There is no class of people so much interested as the working classes. If free trade is established with the islands, they will at once become competitors, with almost the cheapest labor known in the world."

Wants Two Years' Trial

"Calm, dispassionate discussion of the whole subject is in order. A mistake made now may cost us dearly later. The provisions of the bill are operative for but two years, and in that time we may realize better the problems before us."

"The people who are to pay the slight tax levied for the benefit of the masses of the people of Porto Rico are practically the sugar and tobacco trusts. If no tax at all is levied they will be able to buy these materials free of any tax, and the sugar and tobacco raiser in this country will suffer by reason of this competition with almost the cheapest labor known in the world."

"In what more easy of equitable manner can relief be given to the people of Porto Rico?"

"Are we prepared to say that it is right and to the best interests of the people that we shall establish the principle of free trade with these islands and bring the millions of Malays into competition with our skilled labor?"

SMALL POX RAVAGES IN MISSISSIPPI

In Several Towns in Hinds County Whole Families Are Being Wiped Out By the Disease.

Mobile, Ala., March 8.—Smallpox has gained such a terrible hold upon several towns in Hinds county, Miss., that the legislature has given carte blanche to the state board of health the state's money to try and stop the spread of the disease. Whole families have been stricken with the disease, and so fast have people died with it in the past week that their bodies have been allowed to remain in the houses as long as forty-eight hours. The supply of coffins at Jonesville, Miss., has run out, and many of the victims of the disease have had to be buried in coffins made of dry goods boxes and barrels pieced together. The form of the disease is known as black smallpox, and attacks the white person as quick as the negro. A corps of physicians with nurses have been sent out from the coast towns near here to check the path of the death-dealing disease.

Elkhart, Ind., March 8.—When Frank Shanks, a Lake Shore passenger brakeman, reported at the depot here Monday to take his run to Grand Rapids, he was slightly ill, but decided to attempt the trip. On the way he became worse and a physician was wired to meet him at Grand Rapids. In the meantime he divided his time between the baggage car and the smoker. When Grand Rapids was reached the disease was at once pronounced smallpox. It is estimated that at least fifty persons came in close contact with him during the trip. His home is at Three Rivers, Mich.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 8.—The postoffice at Soonover, this county, was closed today by order of the county board of health, as Mrs. Jasper Hoffman, wife of the postmaster, has the smallpox. The postoffice has been quarantined, together with all the occupants, including the postmaster.

Harrisburg, Ill., March 8.—State's Attorney Capel returned from Stone Fort, fourteen miles south of this city, this morning, and reports a bad state of affairs existing in that village over the prevalence of smallpox.

Work of Rescue Is Slow.

SUNDAY BASE BALL AT ATHLETIC PARK

GAMES WILL NOT BE TOLERATED THIS SUMMER.

Present Management Will Not Lease the Park Unless it is so Stipulated That No Sunday Games Take Place—Street Car Company May Start Park for Sunday Amusements.

During the past few days negotiations have been pending for transferring the lease of Athletic park. But there has been one great obstacle in the way. The question is the playing of Sunday base ball in Janesville the coming summer. Certain parties who now control the park are also deeply interested in the welfare of the local Y. M. C. A. Now its a well known fact that the Y. M. C. A. would not sanction the playing of base ball in Janesville on Sunday.

The management who had the park in charge last summer claim that there was no money made last season by the playing of base ball in the Bower City. Good teams were matched in closely played contests but for some reason the local public did not give the support that was expected of them. Parties who are now trying to lease the park for the coming summer season claim that to remedy this trouble there should be Sunday base ball in Janesville. They further claim that there is no harm in playing on Sunday and that it is allowed in many of the leading cities in the country.

A prominent member of the Y. M. C. A. said: "As long as I have anything to say about who shall manage Athletic park you can state that I will never see it pass into hands that believe in playing base ball in Janesville on Sunday." There is talk that a new base ball park will be operated here this season.

MR. DANIELS AND THE PRESS

Tries an Experiment and Gets Some Good Advertising.

This is an unpaid advertisement for Mr. Frank Daniels, opera comedian. It is so good and advertisement, and so cleverly to the credit of Mr. Daniels or his manager, that it is printed without consultation with a censor. Mr. Daniels is quoted by his press agent as follows: "As everybody with eyes must know theatrical organizations pay out a fortune every year for advertising. This advertising takes many forms—news-paper, bill board, lithographs in windows, elevated railroad stations, postal cards, street cars, and a hundred and one other things supposed to catch the eye of the public.

"There was a pretty warm argument the other night in my dressing room over the best form of advertising. I didn't take part because I knew it would result as I had heard the same argument many times before.

"But the next day I consulted with my manager, Kirke La Shelle, and we concluded to test the thing by the reliable means. So that night between the acts ushered distributed among the audience slips with a brief printed statement setting forth the disputed question and politely asking the recipient to indicate by a check mark in the list of various advertising forms employed which one had attracted him to the performance—the ad in the newspaper, the bill boards, window lithographs, or something else.

"Well, the people seemed to take kindly to the idea and the response was most liberal. Eleven hundred slips were handed to the usher after the next curtain, and of that number 991 showed that many of the 1,100 had been attracted by the newspaper solely. Henceforth," the comedian concluded, "the newspapers will get ten-elevenths of all the money Manager La Shelle sets aside for advertising purposes."—Chicago Record.

A large number of guests were present and the home was beautified for the occasion. The number of presents were numerous and costly.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Adece of the town of Center. She is a most worthy young lady who is held in the highest esteem by a large circle of acquaintances. The groom is the son of Eli Crall, also of the town of Center. He is an upright young man of whom nothing but good can be said.

Mr. and Mrs. Crall will go to house-keeping on a farm to be managed by the groom in the town of Center. A host of friends will join in extending the happy couple the best of good wishes.

Harrison for President.

New York, March 8.—A special from Washington to the Times says: "Former President Harrison's opinion about the Puerto Rico bill and the war in South Africa have been discussed with amazing interest here. His selection of just this time in which to utter implied criticism of the administration is regarded by politicians of his party as not accidental or blundering, but intentional, and possibly uttered after the mature consideration of the prevailing opinion in Indiana and the approach of the conventions to nominate delegates to Philadelphia. Thousands of republicans are talking about his backbone with as much reverence as the backbone of Mr. Cleveland was formerly referred to by democrats.

To Amend Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.
Washington, March 8.—The senate foreign relations committee believe that they can so amend the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as to make it acceptable to the American people and the senate without destroying entirely the principle of neutralization. Senator Davis has prepared an amendment, and it will be taken up for consideration at a special meeting on Friday. As the Hay-Pauncefote treaty is modeled on the convention of European powers in relation to the Suez canal, it is proposed by Senator Davis to add another article from that convention and make it apply to the United States in relation to the Nicaragua canal.

Puerto Ricans Starving.
Washington, March 8.—Acting Secretary McKeljohn has received another appeal from Gen. Davis, military governor of Puerto Rico, for assistance for starving Puerto Ricans. Gen. Davis' letter depicts an awful situation on the island. He says that workmen and their families, being without money to live, are drifting into towns and demanding food. In a report which he transmits it is said that many people are bordering on starvation. In the center of the island there is nothing for the poor to eat, and the officer reports that unless assistance is given there will be an outbreak of lawlessness, and sickness will prevail.

Ceremony Over a Treaty.
Washington, March 8.—The ceremony of exchanging reference of the Samoan claims treaty took place in the diplomatic room of the state department Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador; Herr Von Holleben, the German ambassador, and Secretary Hay represented their respective governments. This was the last day on which the exchange could have been made under the terms of the treaty.

Money for Lillookalan.
Washington, March 8.—The senate foreign relations committee has recommended the incorporation in the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill of an amendment providing for the payment of $20,000 to Lillookalan, late queen of the Hawaiian islands, and that she be paid $10,000 per year during her lifetime in relinquishment of her claims against the crown lands of Hawaii.

Washington, March 8.—Rear-Admiral H. McCormick, commanding the Washington navy yard, has been selected for duty as second in command of the United States fleet in Asiatic waters.

Still Rescuing the Dead.
Thurmond, W. Va., March 8.—Not a single colliery in the Thurmond district has been in operation since the explosion Tuesday. Thirty-four bodies have been taken out so far. Of these twenty-nine are dead, and there is no hope for the remaining five. It is claimed by parties who are in a position to know that at least forty bodies are yet entombed in the mine, and there is little hope that any of these are alive.

JEWELRY MUSICAL FEATURE

Congregational Church Choir Entertained by Mrs. Wm. Jeffris

The Congregational church choir was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Jeffris last evening. Mrs. Jeffris kindly provided each guest with a musical instrument, and while supper was being served, the sweet strains of the long forgotten jew-harp floated through the rooms. An excellently served supper proved, however, a greater attraction and the music soon died away, though an occasional enthusiastic beginner would try his luck again. After supper games were played and many songs were sung.

One game that excited a great deal of merriment was when each lady was given a slip of paper with the verse of some song written upon it. Then they were all requested to sing and the gentlemen tried to guess what they were singing. The one who received the prize was Prof. Arbuthnot. Then the ladies were given a chance, and the gentlemen sang. Such a noise, and such roaring was never heard before. Mrs. Wilson was the lucky person to receive the ladies' prize. Altogether a most delightful evening was spent and the choir appreciated Mr. and Mrs. Jeffris' generous hospitality.

EHRLINGER HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Conflagration Took Place at Hanover Last Evening—Contents Covered by Insurance.

Fire totally destroyed the George Ehrlinger home at Hanover last evening. The conflagration took place at 9 o'clock and in spite of hard work on the part of many the flames did fatal work.

The dwelling was not a valuable one and was occupied by August Wedel. The flames started as the result of a defective chimney. With the assistance of neighbors Mr. Wedel was able to save the greater portion of his household furniture. There is an insurance that partially covers the loss on the house. The contents were fully covered and on these there will be no loss.

Mr. Wedel is well known in Janesville and many here will extend sympathy to him in his present affliction.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS MEET.

Midnight Conference at White House on Puerto Rican Bill.

PRESIDENT GIVES ADVICE.

Frankly Confesses He Was Mistaken When He Wrote His Message Recommending Free Trade with the Islands—Lodge Addresses the Senate.

Washington, March 8.—The early adjournment of the senate Wednesday, owing to the announcement of the death of Representative Harmer, "the father of the house," afforded the steering committee an opportunity to hold its first session, and it was a most important one. The unsatisfactory situation with regard to the various pending questions that have caused the leaders so much disquietude was talked over and a subcommittee composed of Senators Hanna, Aldrich and Spooner, was delegated to consult with the president with a view to harmonious action between the executive and the senate. The joint conference took place at the white house and to Rican bill ought to stand. It was the sentiment of the steering committee that as a matter of policy it would not do for the republicans to change front on the Puerto Rican question now, and that therefore the provision for a tariff of 15 per cent of the Dingley law rates, as passed by the house and incorporated in the pending Puerto Rican bill ought to attend. It was agreed, however, in view of the conflicting views of senators and of the strong free trade sentiment in various parts of the country to let the discussion run for some time before calling a caucus to decide upon united party action. Whether the steering committee's views are to be upheld by the caucus or a policy of free trade with Puerto Rico adopted remains to be seen. The meeting of the steering committee was a result of the general conviction among the leaders that something should be done at once to harmonize the differences among the republicans regarding several of the more important matters now before the senate, differences which in their opinion seriously threaten the success of the campaign upon which the party is about to enter. As to the Quay case, assurances were given at the meeting of the steering committee that Senator Frye, the president pro tempore of the senate, had changed his mind regarding the status of that question, and was now disposed to decide that it could not displace the unfinished business, the Puerto Rican bill, and therefore could be discussed only during the morning hour. These assurances have inspired the anti-Quay men with new confidence that they can succeed in postponing indefinitely a vote upon the question of Quay's title to a seat.

At the white house conference the Puerto Rican question and the reciprocity treaties were fully and freely discussed. The president frankly told the senators that he was satisfied from fuller information and more mature reflection that the recommendations of his annual message for free trade with Puerto Rico were ill advised, and that he is now earnestly in favor of the enactment of the house bill providing for a tariff of 15 per cent of the Dingley law rates. The people of the country will soon come to see the matter in the same light as he does, the president said, and they would as frankly admit that a duty is better for the Puerto Ricans than free trade.

SENATOR LODGE ON FOREIGN POLICY

Massachusetts Senator Supports the Administration.

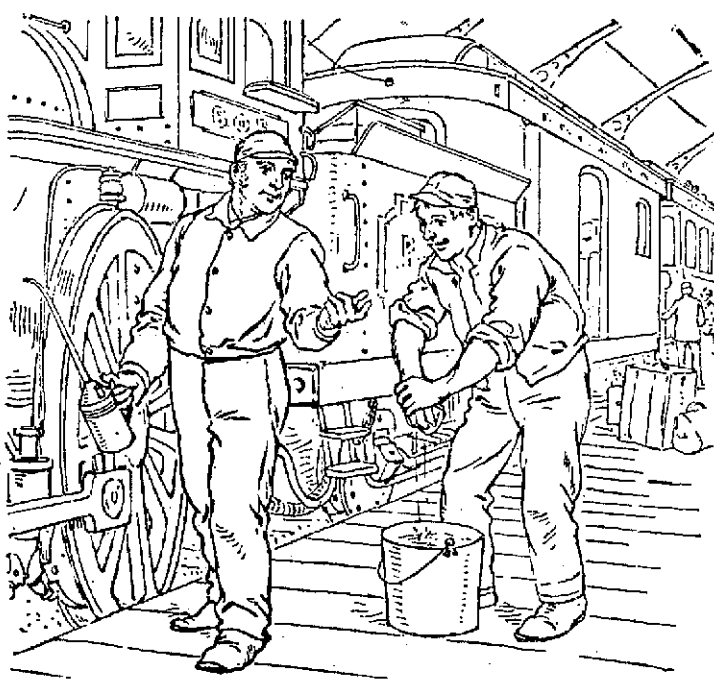

Washington, D. C., March 8.—Senator Lodge delivered his speech in the senate in support of Senator Beveridge's resolution on the government's policy in the Philippines. He strongly deprecated the attempt of the opposition to make the question one of party politics and made a vigorous plea for the retention of the islands. The success or failure of the undertaking, he contended, affected the American people as a whole.

Mr. Lodge said in part: "The questions involved in the future management of the Philippine islands and in our policy in the far east are of a nature to demand the highest and most sagacious statesmanship. I have always thought with Webster that party politics should cease 'at the water's edge.' The Philippines should be an American question, not the sport of parties or the subject of party creeds. The responsibility for them rests upon the American people, not upon the Democratic or Republican party. If we fail in dealing with them we shall all alike suffer from the failure, and if we succeed the honor and the profit will redound in the end to the glory and the benefit of all."

The senator criticized the policy of the opposition in making a political issue of the question, and pointed out the impossibility of adopting the plans proposed to end the struggle in the islands. He said:

"I hope and believe that we shall retain the islands, and that, peace and order once restored, we shall and should re-establish civil government, beginning with the towns and villages where the inhabitants are able to manage their own affairs."

"Taking the colonies as a whole, a very large minority, if not half, of people whom the continental congress proposed to govern were utterly opposed to the revolution. Did we ask their consent? Not at all. We crowded the revolutionary government, or the loyalists at the point of the bayonet, and when the revolution was over they had to accept the government, thus forced upon them, or go into exile, which many of them did. Therefore, if we test Jefferson's phrase by the facts of the government, which we see he was engaged in setting up himself we find that it does not in the least meet the fantastic extensions which it has been sought to put upon it in the interests of the Philippines.

"Jefferson himself was the greatest expansionist in our history. He acquired a vast territory for the United States. Did he ask the consent of the 30,000 white men at the mouth of the Mississippi, or of the Indians roaming over the wide expanses of the Louisiana purchase? Such an idea never occurred to him for a moment. He took Louisiana without the consent of the governed, and he ruled it without the consent of the governed. It was not a question then of 'all' or 'some.' He never asked the consent of any of the governed, either to take the territory or to rule it afterward."

When Mr. Lodge concluded the death of Representative Harmer was announced, and the senate adjourned. The house held a brief session Wednesday. At the close of the morning hour the death of Representative Harmer was announced by the speaker, and out of respect to his memory the house adjourned.

A REAL DEMOCRAT ON EXPANSION.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin—William Jennings Bryan, who is a sham democrat, is opposed to expansion. Stephen A. Douglas, who was a real democrat, was in favor of expansion. Here are the memorable words in which he expressed himself on that subject forty years ago:

It is idle to tell me that you or we have territory enough. Our fathers supposed that we had enough when our territory extended to the Mississippi river, but a few years' growth and expansion satisfied them that we needed more, and the Louisiana Territory, from the west branch of the Mississippi to the British possessions, was acquired. Then we acquired Oregon, then California and New Mexico. We have enough now for the present [forty years ago] but this is a young and growing nation. It swarms as often as a hive of bees; and as new swarms are turned out each year, there must be lives in which they can gather and make their honey. In less than fifteen years, if the same process that has distinguished this country for the last fifteen years continue, every foot of vacant land between this and the Pacific Ocean owned by the United States will be occupied. Will you not continue to increase at the end of fifteen years as well as now. I tell you, increase and multiply and expand is the law of this nation's existence. You can not limit this great republic by mere boundary lines, saying, "Thus far shall thou go, and no farther." Any one of you gentlemen might as well say to a son twelve years old that he is big enough and must not grow any larger, and in order to prevent his growth put a hoop around him to keep him to his present size. What would be the result? Either the hoop must burst and be rent asunder, or the child must die. So it would be with this great nation. With our national increase growing with a rapidity unknown in any other part of the globe, with the tide of emigration that is flowing from desolation in the Old World to seek refuge in our own, there is a constant torrent pouring into the country that requires more land, more territory upon which to settle; and just as fast as our interests and our destiny require additional territory in the north, in the south, or in the islands of the ocean, I am for it."

"That was the position of Stephen A. Douglas on the subject of expansion. He was an American. He was a patriot more than he was a partisan, and when the southern wing of the great political party to whose cause he had given the enormous energies of his great mind during the best years of his life plunged the country into civil war, he did not, like the copperheads, stay with his party and use his influence to embarrass the government, by giving aid and countenance to its enemies. On the contrary, he died urging the members of his party to uphold the government by enlisting in the union army. Bryan and the followers of Bryan, who pretend to be democrats, and who are shouting themselves hoarse against expansion which takes in the islands of the ocean, and who by that course are nerveing the arms of insurgents in the territory of the United States engaged in shooting American soldiers—Bryan and all his tribe would be better democrats as well as better Americans if in the present stage of this great nation's progressive evolution they were guided not by petty fears or personal political aspirations, but by such broad considerations of the destiny and well being of the United States as were eloquently set forth by Stephen A. Douglas.

DESCENT OF THE PRESIDENTS.

The old statement that "blood is thicker than water" is as true today as it ever was—the sympathy for the Boers to the contrary, notwithstanding. The two English speaking races naturally come together at every turn of the road. One of the many reasons for this state of affairs may be found in statistics. For instance, twenty four men have been elected president of the United States, and of this number fifteen descended from English paternal parentage. They were Presidents Washington, Adams, Madison, J. Q. Adams, W. H. Harrison, Tyler, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce, Lincoln, Johnson, Garfield, Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison.

Five presidents were of Scotch-Irish descent, they being Presidents Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Arthur and McKinley. Monroe, Grant and Hayes were of Scottish stock, while Jefferson was Welsh and Van Buren Dutch.

As a general proposition the presidents have been men of the people, and in view of this fact the above figures, especially at this time, are of interest.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin punctures the inflated greatness of the democratic city administration, and demonstrates the necessity of a change. There is no doubt but what the Cream City will go republican this fall, if the republicans pull together, but if they split on the rocks of Populism or any other ism, D. S. Rose will surely be re-elected.

Beware of the man who decrieth a leadership only that he may set up a leadership of his own, for, verily, he hath an axe, with an edge exceeding dull, to grind. Human nature is much the same the world over, and generally the mote in one man's eye is no more apparent to the unprejudiced observer than is the beam in the other fellow's optic. "Judge not, that ye be not judged."

The government of the Philippine will be on lines closely following the system outlined by President Jefferson for the "Louisiana purchase." When Mr. Bryan stops to think of this fact, his breath comes in short pants, but he soon recovers, and begins to spout again.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "Democrats who say running up the flag over Porto Rico placed it under the constitution of the United States have a chance to explain what happened when their President pulled down the flag in Hawaii."

The Philippine commission is now complete, the members being as follows: Judge Taft, Ohio, president; Dean C. Worcester, Michigan; Luke Wright, Tennessee; Henry C. Ide, Vermont; Bernard Moses, California.

During the month of February, the public debt was decreased $6,750,168. Another outrage committed by an "imperialistic government bent on criminal aggression, under a flag symbolizing tyranny and butchery!"

A bill introduced in the New York legislature makes women's bat pins over 3 inches long dangerous weapons—without any reference to the fact that it all depends upon the woman behind the pin.

General Corbin who had charge of the collection of the "Lawton fund" has turned the cash over to Mrs. Lawton—$98,437.07.

Now that the republican primaries have been called the political pot will begin to bubble in earnest.

Milwaukee retains the State Fair. This is as it should be.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY IN OMAHA.

Man Murders His Wife, Murders a Minister, and Shoots Himself.

Omaha, Neb., March 8.—At the residence of the Rev. A. F. Nelson on Wednesday evening Frank Steele murdered his wife, shot the minister, who sprang to her rescue, and blew out his own brains. The tragedy was the result of a domestic quarrel. The woman had gone to the home of the minister to seek protection and secure advice. The husband followed and broke into the house, revolver in hand. The terrified woman fled to the rear of the residence, and the minister jumped in front of the infuriated husband. Steele fired at the minister, wounding him in the arm. He then followed his wife into a corner and, grabbing her by the hair, shot her repeatedly. When she sank to the floor he turned the revolver on himself. Steele came to Omaha from Chicago several years ago as a clerk in Armour's packing-house. The nature of the domestic troubles remains a secret. The minister ran from the house after being shot and secured a physician. When the police reached the house Steele and his wife were dead.

No stronger proof can be had.

Mr. E. T. Fish, of 355 Racine St., proprietor of the Fish Day Line, says: "When I was twenty years of age I fell, injured my back, and ever since that I was troubled more or less with a dull, aching pain across the loins. It never laid me up but it was often painful and annoying. Of late years I have gone to a physician every six months and had myself thoroughly examined under the impression that there might be something wrong with my kidneys. The diagnosis always resulting in the physician claiming these organs were sound, but as the pains existed when I happened to notice in our Janesville papers that Doan's Kidney Pills were guaranteed to cure just such troubles, I procured a box at the Janesville Drug Co.'s store, and took them. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good preparation. My back has not ached since I used them. I have heard others speak very complimentary of them and if I did not know their merit and required such a medicine I would consider it a favor if some one suggested their use to me. For this reason I endorse them."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

SOCIALIST PARTIES UNITE.

Two Factions in Convention at Indianapolis Come Together.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Amalgamation between the socialist labor and socialist democratic parties was made sure Wednesday night, when Haniman of California and Hillquit of New York, representing the socialist labor party, appeared at the national convention of social democrats and presented a plan of amalgamation. The committee was granted the privileges of the floor and greetings were extended. Haniman, for the socialist labor party, said that the party's nominees for president and vice-president would gladly be withdrawn and any course agreed upon that the convention of social democrats might present. A committee was appointed by the convention to confer with those of the socialist labor party, and a conference was held at night, at which an amalgamation plan was agreed upon. This will be reported to the convention today and accepted. The matter will then be disposed of by initiative and referendum. Eugene V. Debs has not yet consented to permit his nomination for president, but it is believed he will do so. Haniman, as the representative of the socialist labor party, will be nominated for vice-president.

C. S. Mace Commits Suicide.

Olney, Ill., March 8.—Charles S. Mace, secretary of the Olney Loan and Building association, committed suicide Tuesday by shooting himself in the heart. The deed was committed in an orchard near the Mace residence, in this city, but the body was not found until 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, although a vigorous search had been made all day. The deceased left no letter of explanation, but the prevailing opinion is that he was fearful of the outcome of an examination of his books, now being made by State Examiner E. N. Dunlap. Mr. Dunlap has been engaged in examining the books for three weeks and has not finished yet. It is stated by one of the directors of the association that a shortage of $2,000 had been found up to Jan. 1. Examiner Dunlap refuses to make any statement.

WASHING WOOLEN BLANKETS

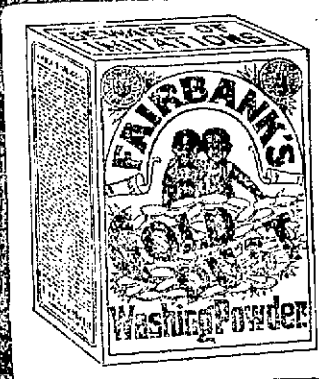

The theory now is, that blankets must be washed instead of dry-cleaned to be healthy. To have your blankets as soft as new, make a soapy suds in half a tub of warm water by using one-half cup of and soak a blanket in it for half an hour; then simply move it around and rub the soiled spots; rinse in warm water of the same temperature as the one in which you wash it, hang up in a warm place or sunbath in outdoor air and see what a soft, white blanket you will have.

The above is taken from our free booklet "How to Wash Your Woolen Goods."

HOW TO LIVE LONG

Is the subject of a poem written by the philosophical Pope Leo XIII, who has attained more years than his allotted three score and ten, in which he advises

"That is the kind of meats we serve at all times, 'delicate, dairy fed, tender beef, lamb, pork, mutton, veal—nutritious, delicious and tempting. Our wagons will call daily for your order."

VIBRATIONS

Did you ever stop to think that everything in Nature is observed and demonstrated by vibrations? There are vibrations of light, heat, sound, of which we are all familiar. But there are other vibrations manifest. Some are aware of the vibrations of health, some of success, some of wealth. The very atmosphere in which we walk is teeming with all these vibrations. All we need to do in order to recognize any or all of these is to get our innermost nature in complete harmony with the forces which create; then all things are ours.

MAGNETIC HEALING

Works on this line and makes the laws of health harmonize with the laws of Nature. Cures are sure to follow. Is this not reasonable? Is it not good sound sense?

Mrs. Dennis, having made a thorough study of the Weltmer Method of Magnetic Healing, is now prepared to treat ladies.
